

Costa Navarino welcomes its guests in 2016 with a revitalized packaged experience

Increased accessibility to Costa Navarino: 9 direct weekly flights from the UK to Kalamata

17 February 2016 - Costa Navarino is set to entice more European travelers throughout the year with nine new direct weekly flights to Kalamata. With the transfer time significantly reduced, Costa Navarino provides an easy-to-reach escape in an unspoiled and authentic destination.

The new flights showcase Costa Navarino as a preferred destination in the Mediterranean, following an overall trend of increased flight connectivity. Operated by British Airways, the new flights will launch on the 30th of April and will run until October. UK travelers will be able to fly directly to Kalamata twice weekly from London Heathrow, every Thursday and Saturday.

In addition to the two new British Airways' flights, four further flights will continue to operate in 2016. Easy Jet will begin flying from London Gatwick to Kalamata on March 29th. Thomas Cook will begin early May with three flights from London Gatwick, Birmingham and Manchester. In total, nine weekly flights will operate from the UK, depicting a 21% increase of UK visitors since last year.

With increased accessibility and year-round mild temperatures, Costa Navarino is 'ideal for a year-round vacation'. Situated in one of the most unspoiled and breathtaking seaside Mediterranean landscapes, guests are offered an extensive variety of activities, including two golf courses; The Dunes Course and The Bay Course, the award-winning Anazoe Spa, a 4,000 sq.m spa & thalassotherapy centre; specially designed facilities for children; as well as a variety of gastronomy venues, sports, outdoor and cultural activities.
